

PRIVACY POLICY

Dear user,

Skillbreak is an online platform that connects Participants and Providers of workshops, provided at skillbreak.com (the “Website”, collectively the “Services”) which is operated by Curao AB, company registration number 556923-6051 having its registered office in Stockholm, Sweden (“we” or “us”).

Your privacy is important to us. Under the Swedish Personal Data Act (1998:204), which implements the EU Directive 95/46/EC, we are liable for the processing of personal data for which we decide the purposes and the means of processing. With “Personal Data” we mean information which is directly or indirectly referable to a natural living person, e.g. name and address but also possibly location data or IP addresses. We may collect the information set out below, which include your personal data.

This document contains a policy statement regarding our collection, use and processing of personal data, with whom we may share such data and your rights in relation to your personal data. When you register an account with us, we will process personal data for various purposes. In order to use the Service you must first read and accept this Privacy Policy.

For hosting of the Website, we are using one.com, and for payments we are using Stripe Payments. You may want to review and accept such third party service provider’s own privacy policies and terms of use.

PROCESSED DATA

We collect and use personal data to deliver and maintain efficient and secure Services:

- (a) Information that you provide by filling in forms on the Site, registering to become a Provider or Participant or listing a workshop on a Provider Page, such as your name, age, address, email address, contact number and the Workshops you are interested in. This includes information provided at the time of registering as a Provider or Participant, searching for Workshops, entering any promotion, completing any surveys or contacting us for any other reason;
- (b) Records of your correspondence (if any) with us;

Please note that we are unable to provide the Services unless you provide the above stated personal data.

When you use the Services, certain information will be collected automatically, including:

- (a) Content that you post, upload and/or contribute to the Services
- (b) Technical data, which may include the URL you are accessing the Webpage from, your IP address, location data, unique device ID, network and computer performance, browser type, language and identifying information and operating system
- (c) And details of your visits to the Site including, but not limited to, traffic data, location data, weblogs and other communication data.
- (d) Financial information about the fees corresponding to workshops you provide or attend.

If you have connected your user account with us to a social media channel such as Facebook, we may receive similar information related to your interactions with the Services from such channels. We may use cookies and similar technologies to collect this information. More information regarding our use of cookies is provided below.

PURPOSES OF PROCESSING

We will process the information set out above for the following purposes:

- (a) to administrate your account, to enable and provide the Services and integration with third party services, and to provide, personalize and improve your experience with the Services, and to otherwise provide the Services according to the terms of use;
- (b) to send you alerts or messages by email or otherwise, including to provide you with marketing of our and our related parties' products and services;
- (c) to inform you about updates of the Services or the terms of use;
- (d) to improve and develop the Services or new services and products and to analyse your use of the Services;
- (e) to ensure the technical functioning of the Services and to prevent use of the Services in breach of the terms of use;
- (f) to enforce the terms of use, including to protect our the rights, property and safety and also the rights, property and safety of third parties if

- necessary; and
- (g) to fulfil requirements by law.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL DATA

We may share and disclose your personal data to our partners and suppliers and related third parties for the above stated purposes within and outside the EU/EEA where you may have less legal rights in relation to your personal data. Your user name may be disclosed to other users of the Services.

You understand and agree that the privacy policy of third parties will govern all use of information provided to third parties in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

COOKIES, PIXELS AND OTHER SYSTEM TECHNOLOGIES

We collect information through technology like cookies, pixels and local storage (like on your browser or device). For information about how we use system technologies and analytic tools and how you can prevent the use of cookies, please see our Cookie Policy.

RESPONDING TO LEGAL REQUESTS AND PREVENTING HARM

We may access, preserve and share your information in response to a legal request (like a search warrant, court order or a subpoena or the like), or when necessary to detect, prevent and address fraud and other illegal activity, to protect ourselves, you and other users, including as part of investigations, if we have a good faith belief that the applicable law require us to do so.

This may include responding to legal requests from jurisdictions outside of the European Union or the European Economic Area where we have a good faith belief that the response is required by law in that jurisdiction, affects users in that jurisdiction, and is consistent with internationally recognized standards.

Information that we receive about you [including financial transaction data] on the Webpage using our Services, may be accessed, preserved and retained for an extended period of time when it is the subject of a legal request or obligation, government investigation, or investigations concerning possible violations of our Terms of Use or policies, or otherwise to prevent harm.

Links to other webpages

You should be aware that when you are on our Webpage you may be directed to other sites where the personal information collected is outside of our control. The privacy policy of the new site will govern the information obtained from you on that site.

SOME OTHER THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

Change of Control

If the ownership of our business changes, we may transfer your information to the new owners so they can continue the Services. The new owner will still have to honour the commitments we have made in this Privacy Policy.

Notice of changes

If we make changes to this Privacy Policy we will notify you by publication in the legal notices page on your account pages or by email to the email address provided by you. If the changes are material, we will provide you additional, prominent notice as appropriate under the circumstances and, where required under applicable law, ask for your consent.

Your Privacy Rights under EU law

EU law permits residents of the Member States once per calendar year to request details about what personal information is stored with us, the source of the data and the identity of parties to whom the data has been provided free of charge, without indicating any reasons.

You can object to the use of your personal data at any time and revoke the consent to use your data that you provided upon your registration. In addition, you can request rectification, erasure or blocking at any time of any personal data that is inaccurate. We make explicit reference to the fact that we are obligated by law to continue to save the data; in this case, the data can only be blocked.

To exercise the aforementioned rights, or if you have any questions about our sharing practices, your rights under EU law, or wish to have your personal information removed, please contact us at hello@skillbreak.com. In order to ensure that you receive a swift response, please state in your letter your full name and, user name and the email address used for registration. Note that you should sign the request to receive information of the processing of your personal data yourself.
