

REF. 2472 8 CAMERAS VIDEO SELECTOR

It is possible to expand the video door entry system installations with extra cameras. This device, allows to select and visualize from the house monitor, the different extra cameras installed.

This selector allows to control from the monitor, up to 8 additional cameras as well as the street panel. For analogue and VDS system.

This application is useful to control the building access door from a higher position. It can be also used to watch the back of the house, garages, gardens etc..

ACCESORIES

FEATURES
