

Oncological challenges in the ED

Date: Wednesday 8 March

RCEM accredited for 5 CPD points

09:30 - 10:00	Registration and refreshments
10:00 - 10:45	What is the prognosis? The evolving oncological landscape and impact on prognosis prediction Dr Rebecca Mallinson, EM Consultant Dr Anna Olsson-Brown, Consultant in Medical Oncology
10:45 - 11:30	Is admission really needed? Updates in the management of oncological emergencies including the low risk neutropenia outpatient management pathway Dr Ashling Lillis, Consultant in Acute Medicine
11:30 - 11:45	Refreshment and networking break
11:45 - 12:30	Little and often A new approach to advanced care planning and its utility in the ED Dr Sarah Herbert, EM Consultant Dr Daniel Monnery, Consultant in Palliative Care
12:30 - 13:15	Lunch and networking
13:15 - 14:00	Oncological hints and tips Exploring some of the common challenges in the management of oncology patients presenting acutely and how to address them Dr Hannah Baird, EM Registrar Dr Alexandra Johnson, Registrar in Medical Oncology
14:00 - 14:45	The fifth oncological emergency Immunotherapy toxicity: what is it, why is it special, how to recognize and treat it Dr Ricky Frazer, Consultant in Medical Oncology
14:45 - 15:00	Refreshment and networking break
15:00 - 15:45	Building bridges Acute oncology at the front door: Building effective relationships between acute oncology and EM Dr Sarah Herbert, EM Consultant Dr Rebecca Mallinson, EM Consultant
15:45 - 16:15	Interactive session What challenges are there with oncology/ haemato-oncology patients presenting acutely and what can be done All speakers
16:15 - 16:30	Summary
16:30	Close of event