

The background is a vibrant blue with a fine, grainy texture. Overlaid on this are several classical sculptures in a light, dusty pink or off-white color. In the top left, a full-length statue of a female figure stands on a rectangular base inscribed with the word 'VERITAS'; she holds a sphere in her right hand. To the right, a draped fabric or garment is visible. In the bottom left, a bust of a woman with curly hair sits on a pedestal. In the bottom right, a large, detailed sculpture of a head and neck is shown, with the hand covering the face.
