

The background of the cover is a stylized illustration. On the left, a large, dark blue silhouette of a man wearing a fedora hat is shown in profile, looking towards the right. On the right, a woman with dark hair, wearing a bright red coat with a black collar and a matching red hat, is depicted. She is holding a small, dark green clutch bag and looking back over her shoulder towards the left. The background features vertical and diagonal lines in shades of blue, suggesting an interior setting like a hallway or a train car.
