

The background of the entire cover is a repeating pattern of antique globes. These globes are depicted in various sizes and orientations, creating a sense of depth and movement. They feature aged, yellowish-brown maps with dark outlines for continents and oceans, and are mounted on thin, dark metal stands with rings. The pattern is set against a solid light blue background.

DANIEL HESS

Das Germanische
Nationalmuseum

Insel-Bücherei Nr. 1570