THE NEAREST U.S. PARADISE

Håfa Adai!

Discover Guam — the nearest U.S. destination to the Philippines!

Guam's natural beauty, 4,000-year-old CHamoru culture, pristine beaches, warm hospitality, clean air, and diverse cuisine are just some of the many reasons to explore our island paradise.

From corporate MICE (Meetings, Incentives, Conventions, & Exhibitions) trips to meaningful SMERF (Social, Military, Educational, Religious, & Fraternal) group travel, Guam offers the ideal mix of modern event facilities and tropical relaxation. It's the perfect venue to inspire your team, connect with your community, and experience an authentic American resort getaway without the long-haul flight.

Why Choose Guam for Your Group?

- Short Direct Flights: Less than 4 hours flight time from Manila.
- Zero Jet Lag: Only a minor 2-hour time difference means your team lands ready and energized.
- Quick & Easy Transit: A.B. Won Pat International Airport is just 15 minutes away from Tumon Bay's prime hotel district.
- Tax-Free Paradise: Enjoy duty-free shopping across major malls and luxury boutiques.
- Year-Round Warmth: Tropical ocean climate with an average temperature of 26°C (79°F).

YOUR SAFE HAVEN IN THE PACIFIC

Guam is a safe destination for visitors. The island is served by two hospitals and numerous medical clinics, ensuring that healthcare is readily available should the need arise. Many public facilities, hotels, and attractions are accessible to people with disabilities, making it easier for seniors and visitors with mobility needs to explore the island comfortably.

With a welcoming community and relatively low rates of violent crime, Guam is a popular destination for families, couples, and solo travelers. The Guam Police Department maintains island-wide patrols and emergency response services to help keep residents and visitors safe.

For added peace of mind, visitors can also access Visitor Safety Officers and a complimentary 24/7 multilingual concierge service at +1 (671) 588-3030 for general assistance, translation support, and emergency referrals.

90% Oceanfront Hotels

Guam offers world-class hotel infrastructure designed to accommodate meetings, incentives, conferences, and events of every scale. From sophisticated ballrooms and flexible meeting facilities to breathtaking oceanfront venues, our hotels provide exceptional settings for executive meetings, workshops, networking receptions, and gala dinners.

One of Guam's most distinctive advantages is its spectacular location — over 90% of hotel rooms in Tumon offer stunning ocean views, creating an inspiring backdrop that elevates every business event while giving attendees the opportunity to relax and recharge.

OCEANFRONT HOTELS

Guam's experienced hospitality professionals understand the unique needs of MICE groups and are dedicated to delivering seamless, personalized service from planning through execution. Whether you're organizing an intimate executive retreat or a large international convention, each hotel offers customized event packages, creative team-building programs, and tailored experiences designed to help you achieve your event goals.

Many of Guam's hotels have been trusted partners in the island's tourism industry fordecades, building strong relationships with the local community through ongoing outreach and sustainability initiatives. From internationally recognized luxury resorts to full-service business hotels, Guam offers accommodations to suit every style and budget. The island is also home to a five-star luxury resort featuring Guam's first purpose-built convention center, providing state-of-the-art facilities capable of hosting large-scale conferences, exhibitions, and corporate events.

About Guam

Guam is a US island territory in the western Pacific where turquoise waters, year-round sun, ancient CHamoru heritage, and layers of Pacific, Spanish, Asian, and American influences come together. As the largest of over 2,000 Micronesian islands and the southernmost of the Mariana chain, Guam serves as a natural gateway to Asia, America, and Australia. Situated about 900 miles north of the equator, the island enjoys a warm tropical climate and is 15 hours ahead of the US East Coast, making it where America's day begins.

The island's history stretches back over 4,000 years to the arrival of the indigenous CHamoru people. Discovered by Ferdinand Magellan in 1521, Guam was the first Pacific island known to the western world. It was colonized by Spain for centuries before becoming a U.S. territory in 1898. Apart from a brief period of Japanese occupation during World War II, Guam has remained under American control for the last century, with its residents being U.S. citizens. Today, the island offers a unique mix of beach escapes and cultural experiences rooted in Inafa'maolek—the CHamoru value of creating harmony.
