

Guidelines for Prison Project Donations

The Prison Project is able to accept the following items for incarcerated students:

- SYDA Foundation publications and Darshan magazines
 - Items must be in good condition, free of water damage, not worn, and without any highlighted or underlined text.
 - Only softcover books accepted.
 - Exception: The Nectar of Chanting
 - Items should not have mailing labels on the covers.
- CDs and DVDs published by the SYDA Foundation
 - Items should not have any scratches.
- Photos
 - Only photos of the Siddha Yoga Gurus accepted.
 - Photos of Gurumayi must be from 1990s or later.
 - Photos must be in excellent condition.
 - Only 3x5, 5x7, or 8x10 photos accepted.
 - Photos should not be laminated, mounted on wood or foam core, or framed.

The Prison Project cannot accept the following items:

- VHS or cassette tapes
- In Search of the Self or Siddha Yoga Home Study Course printed materials and included CDs
- Shawls, japa malas, or asanas

For information on how to send your donations, please contact the Prison Project at PrisonProject@syda.org.

If you want to donate items other than those listed above, please email the Prison Project, as they might be used for the Released Student Program. For items that may have historical value, please contact Shakti Punja at shaktipunja@syda.org.