

Kokoro

Logline

Boarding school - where you're sent to achieve the best of the best grades. But what happens when all that learning makes you forget who you are. In that confusing world Marco is set to answer the question: Where is your heart?

Characters breakdown

Marco - A young boy who has lost himself in his studies. Struggles to define who he is, what he wants and how to choose his path.

Billy - Marco's closer friend and often opposing force.

Eric - The jokester of the group.

Kamya - His second-in-command.

Lydia - The one keeping the group focused and grounded.

Miss Stevenson - their art teacher, who used to go to the same prestigious school. Didn't manage to fit into the mould of academia.

Synopsis

Miss Stevenson sets the class a project on the topic: Where is your heart? Those four words confront Marco with a scary reality. Does he actually love anything? Where is he going with his life if there is nothing he's passionate about? During the two weeks given to complete his project Marco struggles to find those answers, until one day Billy gives him a gentle nudge. He comes to realise the answer is not in where he goes next, but in what is happening right now.
