

CASTING CALL

Students from the University of Gloucestershire looking for 2 FEMALES and 3 MALES to be part of our unique Level Six short film:

'CLAMPED'

"Vaginas"

- most people can't say the word without squirming, but what would you do if yours stopped working? Clamped is a character-driven feminist sex comedy where an outgoing young woman's life is turned upside down when her sexual freedom is taken away from her. Diagnosed with a sexual disorder, she must take steps to control her condition in order to climax again.

ALICE (20's)

A stylish university student who is funny, outgoing and loves a night out, especially if it ends in sex. Alice has always been a 'lovely girl' but since starting university she has re-branded herself to get more attention from men. Suddenly, she is diagnosed with Vaginismus stemming from an uncomfortable sexual encounter. Paired with a hostile friendship with her jealous housemate, Alice is forced to address her issues. With Alice's witty and confident persona, she comedically breaks the fourth wall and speaks to the audience with her 'thoughts we all think but wouldn't say'.

BECKY (20's)

A confident, fun-loving cheerleader who takes pride in her appearance and loves a wild night out. Becky has helped Alice reinvent herself but is not always the most loyal friend, especially when boys are involved.

GEORGE (20's)

An egotistical, sex-obsessed rugby lad who prides himself on his strength and masculinity. Deep down George has a good heart, but on the surface, he comes across as shallow and insensitive.

GUY (20's)

A timid yet lovable student who has always had a soft spot for Alice. An old-school gentleman, Guy has a sophisticated look and a soft demeanour; the perfect man for Alice.

DR ROBINSON (50's)

A friendly, empathetic GP who only wants to help Alice, offering support with her diagnosis and recommending ways for her to regain sexual freedom.
