Summary

A multi-disciplinary artist with a special focus in Music Production, Film Production, Screenwriting, performance-making, acting for the camera, philosophy, entrepreneurship and sustainability.

Graduated with a First Class Honours in BA Drama with Philosophy at Royal Holloway University of London, and most recently graduated with distinction from the MA in Film and Television Production at the University of Bristol. Previously, studied a diploma in Music Production, Screenwriting and Philosophy at The University of Queensland.

Knowledgeable in Adobe Premiere Pro, Lightroom Classic, Logic Pro X, Final Cut, and various screenwriting programs such as CeltX.

My hobbies include reading & writing about philosophical topics such as existentialism and consciousness; practicing vipassana meditation; learning to program in Python; playing guitar & practicing yoga, muai Thai and krav maga.

Passionate about maintaining a balanced, organic and sustainable lifestyle.

I believe life is to learn, grow and help others.

For my graduation, I developed the portfolio of an original 9 chapter miniseries that touches the topics of trauma, paedophilia and it's relationship to power.

The portfolio encompassed the script for the pilot chapter, a character-dynamic worksheet, a mood reel (teaser) for the pilot episode, a mood board illustrating locations, characters and colours; and a completed and detailed 10,000 words document outlining the treatment of each chapter of the miniseries.

Graduated from my degree through an expressionistic-inspired performance that encouraged the audience to create their own narrative in their minds. For this, we made use of techniques of distortion and incongruous juxtaposition of sequences emphasised by the lighting, live music and slow movements in favour of decoding the linear narrative and encourage a more psychological and emotional experience.

The performance was awarded with a first class (78%).
