A recent college graduate with a Level 3 Qualification in Film & TV looking to find a fulfilling career in Film that I can showcase all of my current skills and knowledge in and also gain new and relevant ones. I am very hardworking, confident in my craft and open-minded, which means that I will take on any creative job I am given to the best of my abilities.

My career goal is to be completely happy and satisfied with my career and I would also like to be able to help and guide people going into the same career as myself.
