To Our Dear Sister Jessie

We have lots of memories that fill our hearts,
most are silly and some are blue,
but the best part is we got to share them with you!
Jess, you were the sister full of life,
always smiling and making us laugh.

We thank you for your special gifts throughout our lives and will always remember your caring heart and your good advice.

You had a big impact on all of us throughout our lives,
So please Dear Sister, don't be blue,
you are free from your pain and sorrows too.
There is not a moment in time that we will not be missing you.

So rest Dear Sister, be at peace and let your soul
fly free

We promise to keep your spirit alive
and love and care for your beautiful babies

LOVE, Brooke, Sam,
Sabrina, and Joshua

Lovingly Remembering

Jessie Many Bears

March 4, 1997 — March 9, 2023

Jessie Marie Many Bears

March 4, 1997 – March 9, 2023

It is with deepest sorrow the family of Jessie Many Bears announce the sudden passing of their beloved daughter, sister, mother, grand-daughter, and cousin in Lethbridge, AB.

She was predeceased by her younger brother Colin Jr. Bird; auntie/mom Wilomena Many Bears, uncle William Many Bears; cousins Jamie Many Bears, Ariel Old Shoes; great-uncles Delbert, Gus Many Bears, and Andrew Weasel Fat; great-auntie Shirley Starlight; great-grandparents George and Irene Many Bears, Fred and Beatrice Weasel Fat.

Jessie was born at the Lethbridge Regional Hospital and was raised in Lethbridge. She attended Victoria Park High School. She was a bubbly little girl, with her Harry Potter glasses; caring, and empathetic towards others. If someone got hurt at school, she would be worried all evening at home. Her grandpa lovingly called her Jessie BINGO.

As she got older, she loved taking care of her kids. At the tender age of 18 she started her little family of two boys, and her baby girl. She was proud of her babies, loved to spoil them, and playing dress up with her baby girl. She always dreamed of having a big family. She taught her sister Sam how to be a mother to her kids; showing her some tips and tricks.

Her and her siblings were close knit growing up. As they grew up, they all started their own little families, but when they would get together, they would enjoy each other's company, and talk about their kids. They enjoyed bringing their kids swimming, to the park, and going for walks with them. They would all bicker, as all siblings do, but would eventually start talking like nothing happened and be best sisters again. She loved to laugh and joke around with her sisters, who she shared inside jokes with each of them. She loved her baby brother Joshua dearly, and would do anything for her siblings.

The last five years of her life were hard, as she was introduced to drugs. She tried hard to get back to her babies, and fought hard to get sober for five months before her passing. Through these hard years her siblings still loved her and wished for their silly sister to get better. Her oldest sister/mom Brooke, took her baby girl, and has been raising her as her own. Her mom loved her and prayed for her every night, and did her best to encourage her to get better. She loved her partner Sam, and would always worry about him when he would disappear for days and would go looking for him.

She leaves to mourn, her children baby X, Isaiah, and Jessa; partner Samuel Calf Robe; Mother Irene Many Bears; siblings Brooke, Samantha (Travis), Sabrina (Hayden), Joshua; special brothers Charlton, Terrance, Mark, Weston, Nicholas, Avery, and Boss; uncles Joe Many Bears and Delroy Oka; auntie Frances Many Bears; grandparents William Sr. Many Bears and Fanny White Feathers; great-auntie Delia (Pat) Twigg; great-great auntie Marlene Weasel Fat; her one and only special niece Lala; nephews Kayden, James, Christopher, Carmyle, Xavier, Athennia, Mathayus, and Kylene.
