

EGERIA ARRIVAL

May roses wilt by her grace
as another comet
joins the stars.

Moons freeze as the comet passes,
her trail shall shine.
Planets clear
for the comets arrival.

Still, the sun
with open arms,
his golden drops shall hold what we no longer can.

Lovingly Remembering

Georgine "George"
Hecker

March 5, 1954 — May 23, 2023

With great sadness we announce that GEORGINE "GEORGE" HECKER passed away on Tuesday, May 23, 2023 at St. Michael's Health Centre, Lethbridge, AB at the age of 69 years.

She was predeceased by her parents, Michael and Philomena (née Garrecht) Hecker.

Georgine is survived by her siblings: Frank (Geri) Hecker, Eduard (Olga) Hecker, Maria (Dean) Sehn, Lydia (Ron) Buscholl; numerous nieces and nephews; and relatives in Winnipeg and Germany.

Georgine was born on March 5, 1954 in Spalt, Bavaria, Germany. Georgine graduated from McCoy High School in Medicine Hat, AB and from Lethbridge College in 1973 with a Criminal Justice Diploma. She was awarded a Bachelor of Professional Arts Degree with distinction in 2003 from Athabasca University. Georgine was employed by the Alberta Provincial Court, in Medicine Hat and later in Lethbridge. She held several positions including Justice of the Peace and at her retirement was Deputy Administrator. George loved her nieces and nephews, inviting them to spend time with her during summer vacation. She enjoyed family gatherings and made it a point to attend every event she could.

Thank you to the medical teams at the Chinook Regional Hospital and St. Michael's Health Centre, Palliative Care Unit and to all Georgine's friends who supported her during her illness.
