Lovingly Remembered

Jordan Bull Shields

January 5, 1980 — October 3, 2019

Jordan Patrick Bull Shields, of Lethbridge, passed away peacefully with friends and family by his side at the Chinook Regional Hospital on Thursday, October 3, 2019 at the age of 39 years.

Jordan is survived by his brothers, Peter Bull Shields, Darcy Medicine Crane and Cory Medicine Crane; his sister, Mary Bull Shields; his biological father, Thomas Gambler; friends and relatives, Gordon and Darlene Spear Chief (Ty), Melvin Spear Chief, Barry Long Time Squirrel, Wilburt Good Dagger, and his brothers from River House. Jordan left many friends grieving his passing throughout Lethbridge and Standoff. He will also be deeply missed by his special little friend, Lucas Jordan Kristjanson, whom Jordan took immense pride in teaching the Blackfoot language to.

Jordan was predeceased by his mother, Lorraine Bull Shields and step-father, Jason Bull Child; his special friends, Marshall (Mousie) Vielle, Gordon Good Dagger, Loni Bull Shields, and many brothers and sisters who have passed before him.

Jordan is remembered by family and friends as being very influential in teaching traditional ways. Jordan loved story-telling, taking adventures all over southwest Alberta and loved going to hockey and baseball games. Jordan’s love for life was contagious and despite everything he went through in his life, he always loved loyally and made sure all his friends had food and laughter in their life. Jordan is remembered as a soft and gentle spirit who always had his bro’s back—no matter what. Jordan had a very special and memorable relationship with his brother Peter and will be missed everyday by his brothers at River house. Jordan’s smile could light up a room and his jokes would hurt your tummy from laughing so hard.

The family extends a special thanks to River House, RSPACE and Anne Fox (Indigenous Liaison at CRH).
