

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one, I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when my life is done.

Dad

When I think about a man who has a deep and quiet soul – who works for what his family needs, takes pleasure in his role...

When I think about a man who's had big challenges to face,

*I think about my Dad,
about his dignity and grace.
when I think about a man who in his daily life reveals so much strength and tenderness and depth in what he feels...*

*when I think about a man who always gives the best he can,
I think about my dad,
my lifelong hero.
