

If We Could See Beyond Today

by Norman J. Clayton

If we could see beyond today as God can see,
If all the clouds should roll away,
The shadows flee;
O'er present griefs we would not fret,
Each sorrow we would soon forget,
For many joys are waiting yet
For you and me.

If we could know beyond today as God doth know,
Why dearest treasures pass away,
And tears must flow.
We'd know that darkness leads to light,
And dreary days will soon grow bright;
Some day life's wrongs will be made right,
Faith tells us so.

If we could see, if we could know, we often say,
But God in love a veil doth throw
Across our way;
We cannot see what lies before,
And so we cling to Him the more,
He leads us till this life is o'er;
Trust and obey.

He leads us till this life is o'er;
Trust and obey.

Lovingly Remembered

Eleanor J. Hofman

June 20, 1932 — January 8, 2020

Eleanor went home to be with her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, on January 8, 2020 at age 87.

Eleanor was born to Ben and Mabel Wainman on June 20, 1932 on the family farm near Pambrun, SK. In 1950, Eleanor attended Robertson Secretarial College in Saskatoon. She then worked at James Richardson (Saskatoon), CFB Suffield (Medicine Hat) and the Agricultural Research Station in Lethbridge.

Eleanor met her husband, Dick Hofman, in 1955 while living in Medicine Hat. They married one year later on June 30, 1956. After a few years living in Lethbridge, they located to their acreage outside of Nobleford in 1961. They had three children: Wayne, Sandra and Linda.

In 1990, they moved to Lethbridge to enjoy their retirement years with the next generations of family. They took great enjoyment of frequently spending time with the grandchildren, and more recently, great-grandchildren.

In addition to being a dedicated and loving mother, Eleanor also loved working in her gardens, staying actively involved in her church and helping family, friends and neighbours. Throughout her entire life, she held an unwavering faith in God which she shared with those who surrounded her.

Eleanor joins her parents and her sisters Eileen and Elaine in Heaven. She is survived by her husband, Dick, her brother Bill (Swift Current), her children, Wayne, Sandra (Garth) and Linda (Rob); her grandchildren, Nicole (Corey), Megan (Chris), Taylor (Hannah), Shane, and Danielle; and finally, three great-grandchildren that were very precious to her, Emery, Lennon and Elliot.

Mom will be greatly missed by her family, many relatives, friends and neighbours with her laugh, kind heart and energy.

We are grateful and blessed that Mom was given 87 wonderful years of vibrant life that enriched us all!
