

A Cowboy's Prayer

Our Heavenly Father, we pause at this time mindful of the many blessings You have bestowed upon us. We ask, Lord, that You will be with us in the arena of life.

We as cowboys do not ask for special favours. We don't ask to draw around the chute fighting horse, the steer that won't lay, or to never break the barrier.

We don't even ask for all daylight runs. We do ask, Lord, that You will help us live our lives here on earth as cowboys, in such a manner, that when we make that last inevitable ride, to the country up there, where the grass grows lush and green, and stirrup high and the water runs cool, clear and deep, that You take us by the hand and say:

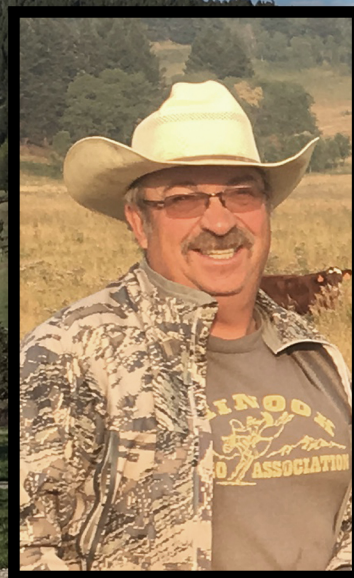

"Welcome to Heaven cowboy. Your entry fees are paid."

Al riding in heaven on earth.

Forever In Our Hearts

Allen Trautman
September 13, 1952
April 4, 2021

Dr. Allen F. Trautman, beloved husband of Geri Medwid Trautman, cherished father of Victoria (Ryan) Becker, and Mike (Dayna) Trautman, and joyful grandfather of Jayde Trautman passed away Sunday, April 4th, 2021. He fought a valiant battle with cancer, but the Lord chose to take him.

Allen was born September 13, 1952, in Camrose Alberta to Mary and Stan Trautman. He was raised in New Norway and went on to do his premed at Camrose Lutheran College on a hockey scholarship. He proceeded on to the U of A (Edmonton) for medical school. With his new bride, he then went to St. Johns, Newfoundland for his internship. His calling was General Surgery, a fellowship he completed at the U of A.

Lethbridge was chosen for their new home. Allen felt he had the best job in the world, healing people. Many were touched by his skills. He was humbled when the Piikani Nation honoured him with his name: Otoyasis (sacred/healing sticks). His passion for horsemanship, which he shared with his children, got him involved with 4-H, rodeo, team penning, team roping and ranching.

Ranching (his second job) took him to the Porcupine Hills; a place he loved. He also had a passion for "armed wildlife viewing". Many hours were spent hunting with his children, brothers and nephews.

Doc will be sorely missed. He loved life and embraced the joys of it.

He is also survived by his siblings and their children: Carol (Don) Simpson, Jane (Mike) Faught, Odean (Charlotte) Trautman, Tim Trautman, Danny (Jody Wilkes) Trautman, Peggy (Bob) MacTaggart and sister-in-law Joy Trautman (Dave deceased).
