

Miss me but let me go...

Miss me a little... but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me but let me go
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

IN LOVING MEMORY

Jack Roberts

MAY 17, 1930

NOVEMBER 4, 2019

After a long and courageous battle with Parkinson's disease, Jack passed away peacefully in the early hours of November 4, 2019.

On May 17, 1930, Jack was born to Ella & David Roberts. Jack had two older brothers Glynn and Don. Jack is predeceased by his parents and both of his brothers. He will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by his much loved wife Carole and his daughters Melissa (Wally) Clark, Lynn (Wells) Slobodian and Lori (Arthur) Lubin. His four grandchildren Steven Wells (Carly Manning), Katelyn (Barry) Olsen, Leah Wells, and Keaton Lubin. Jack's great grandchildren, Liv and Kohler Olsen. He loved and will be missed by his nieces and nephews Patti (Neil) Martin, Jane Roberts, Glynis Roberts, Cathy Parmeter, Michael Roberts, and Patrick Roberts.

After finishing university, Jack taught junior high school for 25 years in Calgary, Ghana, and Victoria, B.C. Following his retirement, he had a successful career in real estate. His great interest in military led to a long service with the Calgary Highlanders, achieving the rank of Major. He continued to read military history for the rest of his life (combining two passionate interests). Jack's love of aviation directed him in obtaining his private pilot's license. In retirement he acquired a lifetime membership with the Windy West Remote Control Flying Club.

Jack and Carole travelled for many years in their motor home, exploring Arizona, California, and many Canadian destinations. Jack loved a hand of bridge, and looked forward to cribbage nights with Bob Clay, as well as with his grandchildren.

Jack had a zest for life and an ease with people that made them feel instantly comfortable. His hospitality was legendary. He loved his family and friends without reserve.
