

Chief Dan George: The Indian Prayer

O Great Spirit!
Whose voice I hear in the wind,
Whose breath gives life to the world.
Hear me.

I come to you as one of your many children.
I am small and weak;
I need your strength and your wisdom.

May I walk in beauty!
Make my hands respect the things
That you have made,
And my ears sharp to hear your voice

Make me strong.
Not to be superior to my brothers,
But to fight my greatest enemy --
My self.

Make me wise.
Teach me the lessons you have taught our elders,
The lessons you have hidden
In every leaf and rock.

Make me walk with straight eyes,
So when life fades like the fading sunset,
My spirit will come to you,
Without shame.
