

ANNA STICKEL, beloved wife of the late Clarence Stickel, passed away peacefully at the Chinook Regional Hospital with family at her side following a brief bout with Pneumonia on Tuesday, September 3, 2019 at the age of 95 years.

She is survived by her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and two great great-grandsons; Shirley (Jim dec. 2016) Pederson, Mick (Nora Brittain) Lerch, (Joseph and Cecilia); Lloyd (Judy) Stickel, Sheyna Aarts (Kienna and Kassydi), Shawn (Tracy Matheson); Ron (Linda) Stickel, Brant, Megan (Sean) Bryan (Blake and Jase), Brandon (Kelsey Logan), Kayla; Trevor (Mireille Farkouh); Audrey Hannan (dec. 2013), Brent (Karen) (Chloe and Seamus); Jody (Brad) Keim, (Clayton and Jeremy); Marlene (Bryan) Firth, Heather (Shane) Graham, (Tiana and Shaylene). Anna is also survived by two sisters-in-law, Irene Lodermeier and Violet King of Creston, BC, brother-in-law Dugald MacMillan, and by numerous nieces and nephews, whom she cherished in her life.

Mom was predeceased by her parents Henry and Maria, brothers Henry, Emanuel, William and Edward Miller and sisters Ida Christiens, Emma Heckenliable and Elsie Beres and their spouses.

Anna was born on a farm in Medicine Hat to Henry and Maria Miller. Mom's life mostly consisted of raising her five children, who were born within six years of each other. Until running water and electricity came along, she worked many long tedious hours. When her children were mostly grown, she worked in various restaurants as waitress and cook. She adored her family, and was most happy when some or all of them visited her.

Thanks to the loving, caring staff at Fort McLeod Extendicare where mom lived for the past seven months. Also, to Dr. Brewer and the nurses on 4th Floor at Regional, who took such good care of mom in her short stay there.
