

Today

Outside my window, a new day I see
And only I can determine what kind of day it will be.
It can be busy and sunny, laughing and gay
Or boring and cold, unhappy and grey.
My own state of mind is the determining key
For I'm only the person I let myself be.
I can be thoughtful and do all I can to help
Or I can be selfish and just think of myself.
I can enjoy what I do and make it seem fun
Or gripe and complain and make it hard on someone.
I can be patient with those who may not understand
Or belittle and hurt them as much as I can.
But I have faith in myself and believe what I say
And personally intend to make the best of my day.

My Admitting

I always thought that I would be strong
But faced with so many problems,
I never thought I could do wrong.
I have made some errors, and bad judgements too
But I never thought that they would hurt you.
But I have to admit that I have been cruel,
And I should be the one to be called a fool.
So please take this time to forgive
what I did because unknowingly
I will never forget as long as I live.
So I guess this is my apology in a nut shell
And I hope you understand how much of an ass I feel.
I hope that your days are better and bright
And I hope you are not too mad
And will still include me in your life.

Remembering Troy

DARREN "TROY" RENNING, passed away suddenly on Friday, March 13, 2020 at the age of 48 years.

He is lovingly remembered by his parents, Darryl & Shirley Renning, brother, Todd Renning, sister, Tabetha Renning (Bob Fortin - deceased), only nephew, Markus Renning, longtime best friend, Alisha Fraser as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Troy was born in Calgary, AB and raised in Picture Butte, AB. As a young man he was passionate about hockey and started playing in Picture Butte, eventually moving into Lethbridge to play in the Triple "A" Minor Hockey League. Unfortunately his career ended shortly after a knee injury but his passion continued with coaching PeeWee teams in Picture Butte.

Troy had an adventurous spirit and one day, just up and decided to go backpacking with a few of his buddies. They traveled in and around Thailand and then Australia which gave him quite a few memorable stories to tell when he came home.

Troy always wanted to be his own boss and became interested in designing his own shirts. He went to Pittsburg, PA and talked with a manufacturer there then came home with tons of boxes of his own designer shirts called "I Snap" which he sold in a tanning salon. The smart-alec catchy sayings and drawings of the characters were all designed by Troy himself.

Troy's journey began to decline when he became ill with unknown diagnoses that he struggled with for years. Many visits with doctors and specialists became tiresome and took a physical and emotional toll on him. He was finally diagnosed with a form of rheumatoid arthritis which eventually left him crippled.

His family and friends will miss him terribly but take comfort in knowing he is finally at peace and free from the rigors of his debilitating disease.

Troy will forever be in our hearts and never forgotten.
