

One Day at a Time

Song by Meriam Bellina

I'm only human, I'm just a woman
Help me believe in what I could be
And all that I am
Show me the stairway, I have to climb
Lord for my sake, teach me to take
One day at a time

One day at a time sweet Jesus
That's all I'm asking of You
Just give me the strength
To do everyday what I have to do
Yesterday's gone sweet Jesus
And tomorrow may never be mine
Lord help me today, show me the way
One day at a time

Do You remember, when You walked among men
Well Jesus You know if You're looking below
It's worse now, than then
Pushing and shouting
That's crowded my mind
So for my sake, teach me to take
One day at a time

One day at a time sweet Jesus
That's all I'm asking of You
Just give me the strength
To do everyday what I have to do
Yesterday's gone sweet Jesus
And tomorrow may never be mine
Lord help me today, show me the way
One day at a time

In Loving Memory of Mrs. Tena Selles 1940 ~ 2023

When it was His proper and perfect time, God took home his daughter Tena Selles (Kippers).

On May 28th, 2023, 21 years to the day of her husband's passing, she passed peacefully into glory and now waits with us all for the resurrection life.

She met Joe (Johannes Hendrikus Selles) after he came to Canada in 1953. They married in 1960 and raised four children together, Bill (Teresa) Selles, Rita (Neil) Pothoven, Chris (Rick) Eenkhoorn, and John (Marion Dale Steinke) Selles. Today there are 17 grandchildren and 42 great-grandchildren.

Tena was predeceased by her husband, Joe; her sister, Hennie Peters; and one infant grandson, Daniel Eenkhorn.

She is survived by her brothers and sisters, Jean Selles, Henry (Mary) Kippers, Grace Aikema, Gladys (Dick) Vanderveen, Linda (Harry) Lubbers, Lennert Kippers, Clarence Kippers, Christine Piefers, and Andrew (Pieta) Kippers.

Twenty-one years is a very long time to be away from your life's partner. Her loneliness is ended and we who remember her are thankful.

"Death has been swallowed up in victory".
