

DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND WEEP

Do not stand at my grave and weep

I am not there; I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,

I am the diamond glints on snow,

I am the sun on ripened grain,

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry,

I am not there; I did not die.

Forever In Our Hearts

Marie L. Maclean

November 9, 1932 — October 6, 2020

Marie Lillian Maclean, the beloved wife of the late William Donald "Don" Maclean, of Lethbridge, passed away peacefully at home, on October 6, 2020 at the age of 87 years.

She is lovingly remembered by her children; Rick (Vanessa) Maclean and their children, Patrick (Staci), Sean (Katie) and Brendan (Haylee); Michele (Bob) Jackson and their children, Ashley and Travis (Alison) Coe; Judy Maclean; Sandy (Walter Portillo-Menjivar) Maclean and their children, Cody Hartwick (Mari) and Alex Portillo-Menjivar; great-granddaughter, Sadie Coe; sister Joyce Scott and sister-in-law, Jenny Wilde as well as many nieces and nephews.

Besides her husband, Marie was predeceased by her parents, Harry and Mabel Wilde, mother-in-law, Eva Maclean, brothers, Stanley (Eileen), Charlie, Nelson, Doug (Shirley) Harold (Rosemarie) and Vernon "Chris" Wilde as well as sister, Edna (Bob Bryden), and brother-in-law, Keith Scott.

Marie was born on November 9, 1932 in Richmond, SK. She pursued a career in nursing, graduating from the Calgary General Hospital School of Nursing then working for many years at the Lethbridge Municipal Hospital.

Marie loved nothing more than family gatherings and reunions. Her family was always her priority. She was a caregiver her entire life and provided meals and care to so many. If acts of kindness and compassion were jewels in a crown, hers is surely full.
