Lovingly Remembered

Rose Chudobiak

August 22, 1939 — May 31, 2022

ROSEMARY CHUDOBIAK, beloved wife of the late Don Chudobiak, passed away peacefully at Chinook Regional Hospital on Tuesday, May 31, 2022 at the age of 82 years.

Rose is survived by her children, Ralph (Christine) Workman of Calgary, Vicky Lee Monette of Grande Prairie, Chuck (Brenda) Workman of Calgary, Joe Workman of Lethbridge and Donna Reid of Nova Scotia, as well as six grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. She is also survived by her sisters, Marion and Kathern, and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her husband, Don, as well as her parents, five brothers and one son-in-law.

Rose was born and raised in Princeton, B.C. She married when she was 16 years old. She had her first child, Ralph, then her second child, Vicky, while she was living on a ranch near Cardston. She moved to Lethbridge where she had Charles and Joe, and raised all four children on her own.

She was working as a cook on the army base, then went on to be a diet cook at the hospital. She also cooked at the El Rancho. She met Don in 1969 and were married one year later in Niagara Falls, Ont. Later that year, she welcomed her fifth and final child, Donna.

They moved to Coaldale where they bought a home. She started cooking at the Coaldale Motor Inn. Later, she became a business owner at DJ Cab Company. She retired and moved to Lethbridge. She then started taking up her hobbies: painting, making flower arrangements, and Christmas decorations.

She became born again around 1979 and was baptized at the home of Dr. George and Dr. Hazel Hills in their swimming pool. She was a long-time member of Victory Church.
