Honoured to serve the family of Carolyn Mehew

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears;
Remember all the laughter
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life, it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way,
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.

In Loving Memory
CAROLYN MEHEW

In Loving Memory of Carolyn Edith (Loose) Mehew
November 22, 1940 — September 28, 2020

Mom was the youngest child of Erven and Hope Loose, she was raised on the family farm near Magrath. In the twelfth grade, she was the yearbook editor and proved her skills as a talented photographer. Shortly after, she graduated from the Magrath High School and she was off to Calgary General Hospital to begin her nursing education. In July of 1960, a dashing Mr. Wayne Mehew had other ideas and snapped up his feisty redhead and married her. In 1963, Mom and Dad bought a small farm near Del Bonita. They farmed side-by-side until Dad's passing in 2003. They added onto their farm four times over the years and it grew into a wonderful farm and ranch. Together with Dad, she raised her four daughters on that ranch, teaching us the valuable things she knew. Mom's creative nature kept her extremely busy throughout her years, it pushed her to hone her many skills and we think a lot of this "learn to do by doing" attitude was gifted to her talented and bright herd of grandsons. Mom loved to ride her Harley. She and Dad went on many exciting adventures together. Carolyn was a strong woman with a big heart and it seemed that at the end of a hard day of work on the farm she always found something to laugh and smile about in her prairie home surrounded by the family she loved.

Mom's goodbye to her family and friends was a long one. Her essential essence was there to the end. She continued to give hugs and smiles accompanied by a little chuckle. She managed to keep busy at the Prairie Ridge, helping the staff as best she could and, of course, walking.

Carolyn was predeceased by her loving husband, Wayne Mehew. She is survived by her four daughters, Kate Clarke (Carl Coventry) and her sons Matt, Eric and Lucas; Pamela (Mike) Lloyd and their sons Stephen, William (Tara) [their children, Nicky and Allie], and John (Christine Nilsson); Gwen (Rob) Holzwarth and their sons Derrick (Chelsey) [their son, Jameson], and Mitchell; Becky (Bruce) Tricsli and their sons Russell and Justin.

We will always love you, Mom.

A heartfelt thanks to the staff of Prairie Ridge Good Sams in Raymond for all the love and tender care she received.
