Mom, I'll Remember

There are things that I'll always remember,
No matter how old I grow,
Like the fuss that you made on our birthdays,
And the fun we had long ago.

I'll remember the warmth
and the laughter, How we begged you to stay up late,
How special you always made Christmas,
And how we could hardly wait!

I'll recall with a smile,
how you loved us,
How too often you went without,
To provide us with all of the "extras"
But I guess,
that's what love is about.

Most important, what I will remember,
Is that you were so patient
and true,
Through everything you stood beside us,
And for that, Mom, we love you.
...we do
