

One night I dreamed a dream.
 As I was walking along the beach with my Lord.
 Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
 For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,
 One belonging to me and one to my Lord.

After the last scene of my life flashed before me,
 I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
 I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,
 especially at the very lowest and saddest times,
 there was only one set of footprints.

This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.
 "Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,
 You'd walk with me all the way.
 But I noticed that during the saddest
 and most troublesome times of my life,
 there was only one set of footprints.
 I don't understand why, when I needed You the most,
 You would leave me."

He whispered, "My precious child, I love you
 and will never leave you,
 Never, ever, during your trials and testings.
 When you saw only one set of footprints,
 It was then that I carried you."

In loving memory of
Ron Huber
 February 19, 1936 — January 11, 2020

I, Darlene, would like to announce the sudden passing of my husband, Ron, on Saturday, January 11, 2020. He was the love of my life and the very best partner this girl could've ever had.

Ron's life was a life well-lived. He was a man that was passionate about many things, and so very proud of his son, Randy. Most of Ron's working life was as a Pharmacist and Pharmacy Marketing Manager for Calgary Co-op Association. He loved his work—but let's not forget his golf. Ron was an intrepid traveler and we were so lucky to see many parts of the world together.

He was quick to smile and always whistling. He had a quick wit and loved to tease us all. With Ron around, there weren't many dull moments.

He is mourned by his wife, Darlene, his buddy, Heidi, his son, Randy, his first wife, Ulla, his sister, Daun, his sister-in-law, Diane (Ruben), his brother-in-law, Dan (Maryanne), his niece and nephews, Tim, Greg, Angela, and Adam, as well as many cousins.

*"If there's another world, he lives in bliss;
 if there is none, he made the best of this."*
