

Heaven's Special Child

A meeting was held quite far from earth,
It's time again for another birth.
Said the Angels to the Lord above,
This Special Child will need much love
His progress may be very slow.
Accomplishments he may not show.
And he'll require extra care
From the folks he meets down there.
Hey may not run or laugh or play:
His thoughts may seem quite far away.
In many ways he won't adapt
And he'll be known as handicapped.
So let's be careful where he's sent.
We want his life to be content.
Please, Lord, find the parents who
Will do a special job for you.
They may not realize right away
The leading role they're asked to play.
But with this child sent from above
Comes stronger faith and richer love.
And soon they'll know the privilege given
In caring for their gift from heaven,
Their precious charge, so meek and mild,
Is Heaven's Very Special Child.

In Loving Memory

Mark Robert Munro
September 2, 1994 - June 1, 2023

MARK ROBERT DERENZO-MUNRO has gone on to his next journey, to walk, run and play.

Mark is survived by his parents Debra Derenzo and Jayson Munro, twin brother Brady, sister Verna (Gabe) Mabin, and brother Colby Auld, as well as nieces and nephews.

Mark was born Sept 2 1994. He was a son, brother, uncle, grandson, and a nephew. All of these roles were important, however, his biggest role on earth was that of a teacher. Mark was an inspiration to the people who were fortunate to be a part of his life. He inspired them to have compassion and patience, to love unconditionally, and to take joy in the small things. Mark loved everything from Toy Story to the Wiggles, although I'm sure his parents often times wished he enjoyed other shows once in a while.

Mark taught his family that they could do hard things. The final lesson being the toughest, and that life just won't be the same without him. Even though he did not speak with words, his most infectious smile and those big brown eyes spoke volumes. He loved visits from his niece and nephews, and even when he was having a tough day, they could always find a way to make him smile or laugh. It wasn't always easy, but it was so worth it. You will always be our most favorite Marky Mark!

To infinity and beyond, our precious boy.
