

It's Not the End of the Trail

*It's not the end of the trail for me;
I've just traveled on, you see,
up ahead where greener pastures grow
and cool water streams dance as they flow.*

*Flowers in bloom of every sort and kind,
colours more vivid than any I left behind,
family and friends I haven't seen in years,
hugs and handshakes and no more tears.*

*They've welcomed me home here today,
a place of peace for me to stay,
they say it's my home for eternity;
no it's not the end of the trail for me.*

Lovingly Remembered

Lucy Pavan

August 26, 1925 — September 21, 2021

LUCY DONNA PAVAN (nee Bitango), beloved wife of the late Joe Pavan, passed away at Park Meadows Good Sams on Tuesday, September 21, 2021 at the age of 96 years.

Born in Hardieville, Lucy grew up on a farm in the Sunnyside community. She was a resilient child, enduring polio and many stays away from home for medical treatment throughout her childhood. She met Joe and married on October 21, 1945. She enjoyed working at Western Canada Hardware and then for many years, until her retirement, for the County of Lethbridge.

She was affectionately known to many as "Grandma Lucy" and spent her time caring for her humongous gardens, sharing her love of gardening and flowers with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She looked forward to visitors and her door was always open, offering a drink and some of her delicious baking to whoever stopped by. She was a long-time member of the Catholic Women's League and the Weaver's Guild and loved to gift her warm blankets to family and friends.

Lucy is lovingly remembered by her daughters, Pat (Ken) Anderson of Pincher Creek, Ann Duncombe (Ray Yezovich) of Lethbridge, and Joan (Jim) Peterson of Colorado Springs; her son-in-law, John Morgan of Foremost; and her brother, Francis "Punch" Bitango; as well as her grandchildren, Shawn (Coralee) Anderson, Clint (Elizabeth) Anderson, James (Andrea) Anderson, Paula (Dean) Palmarchuk, Chris Duncombe (Tara Semeschuk), Ryan Morgan (Mandy Pack), Ashley Morgan (Ryan Miller), Joe (Kat) Peterson, and David Peterson (Tori Fugate); and her great grandchildren: Levi, Lewis, Colton, Malina, Hallie, Cole, Mackenzie, Kahlan, Reed, Dalin, Bella, Tove, and Ryland. She is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews and their families. She was predeceased by her daughter, Donna Morgan, brother Mike Bitango, grandson Jody Anderson, and her parents, Matt and Mary Bitango.

Her family would like to thank the staff at Park Meadows for their care of Lucy during her time there.
