Deacon Raymond Wagner of Coaldale, beloved husband of Ellen Wagner of 54 years, passed away suddenly at home with his loving wife of 54 years by his side, on Monday, November 25, 2019 at the age of 74 years.

Raymond was born March 30, 1945 to Maxmillian and Theresia Wagner in Wilkie, Saskatchewan.

Besides his loving wife, Ellen, Raymond is survived by three children: Gerald (Tracy); Cheryl-Ann (Rick); Christine (Kevin); 21 grandchildren and three great grandchildren; as well as numerous sisters, brothers, in-laws, nieces and nephews.

Raymond's love did not discriminate as he was always willing to help anyone. He did not have the word 'no' in his vocabulary.

He was passionate about his wife, his family, his work, his community yet his greatest love was for the Lord. The love dad had for mom was incredible as she was his everything and he was hers. Together they were great examples of faith in a God that walked with them in every part of their lives.

He loved spending time with his family while hunting, boating, camping, and fishing. He touched the lives of many others while serving His Lord, he was truly a fisher of men. He will be deeply and sorrowfully missed by everyone who knew him.

We know that our God will sustain us as we mourn the loss of this amazing man who brought love, laughter, adventures, and endless stories to our lives. "He was a good, good, Father."
