Lovingly Remembering

Kaz Tomomitsu

January 1, 1936 — October 21, 2022

KAZ TOMOMITSU, beloved husband of Marjory Tomomitsu, passed away peacefully at the Chinook Regional Hospital in the early morning of Friday, October 21, 2022 at the age of 86 years.

In addition to Marj, Kaz is survived by his daughter Tamara (Michael and grand-dog Oscar), brother Mas (Carol) and brothers-in-law Rick (Teri), Lloyd (Marion), Don (Maureen), Kiyo (Toki) and sister-in-law Irene (Paul), along with numerous nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews and friends. He is predeceased by his father (Haruichi), mother (Itoko) and sisters Sue, Reiko and Pauleen.

A sports enthusiast, Kaz could often be found at the Hurricanes' games or sitting in front of the television watching his beloved Blue Jays. In the summer, he was a fixture at the golf course often using colourful language and his signature line, "last hole ass hole". He also enjoyed coffee with friends and playing pool and cards at the Norbridge Seniors Centre.
