

Rest in peace, Mom—say hi to Dad and all your friends up there.
We are sure there will be a place to hang your wings!

*The tide recedes, but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand.
The sun goes down, but gentle warmth
still lingers on the land.
The music stops, yet echoes on
in sweet, soulful refrains.
For every joy or sorrow that passes,
something beautiful remains.*

Lovingly Remembered

Anne Boras

June 13, 1928 — January 15, 2020

Anne Eva Boras, beloved wife of the late Walter V. Boras, passed away at the Good Samaritans Park Meadows Village, on Wednesday, January 15, 2020, at the age of 91 years, surrounded by close family.

Anne is survived by her five children: Pat (Wayne) Petersen of Lethbridge, Carol Boras of Vietnam, Lorrie (Sean) McCarthy of Longview, Susan (Marc) Boras of Coquitlam, and David (Julie) Boras of Lethbridge. She is also survived by six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her brother Tom (Elsie) Bulva, her sisters-in-law Helen Boras, Cecile Bulva, and Barb (Ken) McRae, numerous nieces and nephews, and friends.

Besides her loving husband, Walter V. Boras in 1999, Anne is predeceased by her parents Mary and Ivan, brothers Johnny and Joseph, brothers-in-law Mike Boras, Ivan Boras Earl Gibbons, and sisters-in-law Anne Gibbons and Doris Boras, and nephew Kenny Bulva.

Anne was born June 13, 1928, in Obrez, Yugoslavia. The family immigrated to Canada in 1929 and settled in the Taber area and eventually purchased a farm in Barnwell. As the family grew, they sold the farm in Barnwell and purchased a larger farm in Iron Springs. Anne worked on the family farm in her late teens before working at the Gibbons store.

In 1950, Anne married Walter V. Boras and lived in the Picture Butte area where they raised their family. Anne was a devoted wife and mother. She enjoyed planting flowers in her rock garden, crocheting blankets and doilies, making and selling crafts at the Farmer's Market with Walter, and baking bread, kifles, and jam-jam cookies. Anne always had a fresh pot of coffee on for anyone who stopped by the farm, and fresh bread could be smelled for miles away.

Anne was a devoted Catholic and was a member of the Catholic Women's League (CWL) in Picture Butte for over 60 years. She also was a member of the St. Catherine's Parish Choir. Her voice was as beautiful as the angels she made for the Farmer's Market.

In July 2015, Anne moved to the Piyami Lodge in Picture Butte where she resided for five years before moving to the Good Samaritan Park Meadows Village in November 2019. She resided there for two months.
