LOVINGLY REMEMBERED

Sheila Red Crow

DECEMBER 30, 1962 – JANUARY 12, 2020

It is with great sadness that we mourn the passing of our beloved Sheila May Red Crow (née Brave Rock), who passed away at St. Michael's Palliative Care Unit surrounded by her loving family on Sunday, January 12, 2020. She battled a lengthy illness, and passed just one day after renewing her wedding vows with her loving and devoted husband of 44 years, Alvin Red Crow.

Sheila was born and raised in the Fort Whoop-Up end of Kainaiwa, and was the youngest child of Ted and Annie Brave Rock. She received the majority of her education attending school in Lethbridge. She always had a crush on the love of her life and was determined to make him notice her. It took a bit of time, but eventually Alvin was smitten with love, and the happy couple was married soon after.

Sheila received her Certificate in Levels One and Two of her Caretaking Course from Bow Valley College, and though she worked at Kainai Continuing Care and BTAP for a period of time, she preferred to dedicate her life to raising her children and supporting her husband's endeavours as a housewife. Her life was centered around her family, and she gave all of her being to loving and nurturing her children and grandchildren. She extended her kind and caring ways to her nieces and nephews, and all those she crossed paths with.

Sheila will be forever missed by her children, Elisha, Allred, and Alvin Jr., her cherished grandchildren, Devlin, Lennex, Diego, Lily, and Summer—the mother of her dear children, Kira and Kaydence of Regina, SK—her dear brothers, Rocky and Ross, her sisters-in-law, Jackie Red Crow, Delphine (John) Pipestem, and Emma Brave Rock, her brothers-in-law, Norbert (Andrea) Red Crow and Edward Chief Moon, her special cousin, Gerri Eagle Speaker, and her special niece, Yolanda Brave Rock. She is also survived by numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, and extended family members including Buckskin, Tailfeathers, and Hunt.

Sheila joins her son, Andrew Red Crow, who she missed every day, as well as her parents, Ted and Annie Brave Rock, her brothers, Leslie Long Time Squirrel and Edward, Rex, and Leonard Brave Rock, her sisters, Delma Chief Moon and Colleen Across The Mountain, her special uncle and aunt, Reggie & Gladys Buckskin, her in-laws, Andrew Allred and Dinah Red Crow, as well as many other relatives too numerous to mention.
