

M O M

So sad it is that those we need
And those we love the best,
Are just the ones God calls away so early home to rest.
Now memories and grief we share
When the family meets and you're not there.
If we could say "Hello, Mom" in the same old way;
To hear your voice and see you smile
To sit with you and chat a while.
To talk with us through this life;
To keep us safe from harm and strife.
Gone are the years we used to share,
But in our hearts you're always there;
With toil worn hands and hair so gray
You're our guiding light along the way.
Wonderful Mother's love, woven in gold;
This is the memory we tenderly hold.
