

Just as I Am

Just as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bid'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come! I come!

Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot;
To Thee whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt;
Fightings within, and fears without,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind;
Yes, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Just as I am, Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down;
Now, to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Forever In Our Hearts

Jean Pittman

October 30, 1932 — November 14, 2023

JEAN EILEEN PITTMAN (née, PUTZI), of Warner, beloved wife of the late Victor Pittman, passed away peacefully at Park Meadows Good Samaritans in Lethbridge, on Tuesday, November 14, 2023 at the age of 91 years.

Left to carry on her rich legacy are: Jim (Eleanor) Pittman of Lethbridge, Elizabeth (Larry) Beyko of Calgary, Teresa (Ian - deceased) Craig of Gillete, Wyoming, Francis Pittman of Warner, Lois (Bruce) Morrison of Nelson, B.C., Morris (Joyce) Pittman of Pincher Creek, Pierre (Elnora) Pittman of Lloydminster, Joanne (Darryl) Zachary of Calgary, and Carolyn (Tim) Scott of Lethbridge; 20 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by one brother, Rick (Rod) Putzi of Milk River, and many good neighbors and relatives, who will miss her love and support.

Besides her beloved husband Victor in 2005, Jean was predeceased by her daughter, Eleanor Anne in 1997, parents John and Sophie Putzi, brothers Ken (Bev) Putzi, Ralph (Erin) Putzi, and sister Mary (Ken) Lewison.

Born Oct. 30, 1932 on the family farm at McNab, Alberta, Jean attended Warner School. In 1951, she married Victor Pittman. There, Jean and Victor farmed and ranched for 55 years and raised ten children.

Jean was an active member of the Warner community, including the Catholic Women's League, the Library Board, Senior's Centre, Warner Historical Society and as a 4-H parent. While her interests in community were great, her passion was for creating a loving and organized home, farm and family. She was a great baker of pies, breads, buns, fudge and cakes. An avid homemaker, seamstress and quilter, Jean was also a self-taught pianist; she loved to play, teach and listen to music. She supported family gatherings almost every weekend with meals and parties. Jean was also a voracious reader, preferring autobiographies and non-fiction.

Mom was strong, capable, loving, funny, supportive, non-judgmental and her faith in God was solid and inspiring. Her kindness, generosity and selflessness will always be cherished.

The family expresses sincere gratitude to the most wonderful staff members at The Prairie Rose Lodge in Milk River and at Park Meadows Good Samaritans Village in Lethbridge. We appreciate each one of you greatly. Your care was noted and appreciated each day!
