

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.
He restores my soul.
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley
Of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
For You are with me:
Your rod and Your staff,
They comfort me.
You prepare a table before me
In the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
Forever.

In Loving Remembrance

Anne Boldt

July 6, 1932 - December 31, 2018

Menno Boldt

October 23, 1930 - January 4, 2019

*"Give thanks to the Lord for He is good.
His love endures forever."
- Psalm 136: 1*

Anne Boldt, beloved wife of Menno Boldt, passed away peacefully at Good Samaritans West Highlands Centre on December 31, 2018 at the age of 86 years.

Anne was born on July 6, 1932 in Ewelme, AB. She began teaching in a one room school house in Alberta and continued to teach in Manitoba until she became a mother and teacher to her own children. She also spent time volunteering in schools and, after moving back to Alberta, on the board of the Coaldale library. Anne was passionate about her garden and could often be found out in her yard lovingly tending her flower beds or cultivating fresh vegetables and berries which she generously shared with her family and neighbors. She was an exceptional cook and was especially known for her amazing homemade chicken noodle soup which was always ready when family came to visit from out of town. She spent countless hours playing with her grandchildren over the years, and her love for them was something they will treasure forever.

Anne was also a loving daughter and daughter-in-law and spent much time cheerfully looking after her parents and mother-in-law in their later years.

Anne was a loving, gentle and devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, and her family was always her first priority.

Menno & Anne were married for 63 years and sweethearts for 70. During their later years they were inseparable until Anne's passing four days before Menno's. The love they had for each other was an inspiration to their family and all who met them. They would be the first to tell anyone that their love for each other came from their love for and from God, and they lived out their faith throughout their lives. Menno and Anne were the most loving and generous parents, grandparents and great-grandparents.

Menno & Anne are survived by their daughters: Elaine (Gary) Teichrob of Rosedale BC, Debbie (Paul) Bryant of Lethbridge, AB, and Karen (Mike) Thiesen of Calgary, AB. They are also lovingly remembered by their grandchildren: Jordan Teichrob (Aleta), Candace (Scott) Mensink, Kimberly (Kevin) Standeven, Joel Bryant (Christy), Taylor Thiesen and Adam Thiesen as well as by their great-grandchildren: Alexa, Elise, Aiden and Benjamin. They are both survived by many beloved sisters and brothers, nieces and nephews.

Menno Boldt, beloved husband of Anne Boldt, passed away peacefully at Good Samaritans West Highlands Centre on January 4, 2019 at the age of 88 years.

Menno was born on October 23, 1930 in Standoff, AB where his father was a teacher. After owning several gas stations and working for the Oil & Gas Conservation board in Calgary, he chose to continue his education and attended Yale University where he graduated with a Masters and Ph.D. in Sociology. He went on to work as a Professor of Sociology at the University of Lethbridge for 25 years until his retirement.

Menno had a genuine compassion and a loving heart for others, which showed in his work and his writings. He was dedicated to helping others and received numerous awards for his work. He became a provincial, national and international leader in the development of suicide prevention research and programs and was the chairperson of the Alberta Task Force on Suicides. Menno was also one of the founders of the Native American Studies program at the University of Lethbridge.

Menno was a loving and generous husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, and his family was always his first priority.
