Weihenstephaner Hefeweizen $15

The Bavarian State Brewery Weihenstephan, founded in 1040, is the oldest continuously operating brewery in the world. This golden-yellow wheat beer, with its fine-poured white foam, smells of cloves and impresses consumers with its refreshing banana flavor. It is full bodied and has a smooth yeast taste. To be enjoyed at any time, goes excellently with traditional Bavarian sausage. 100 rating and the #1 ranked Hefeweizen in the world on Beer Advocate.

Weihenstephaner Dunkelweisse $15

Also brewed by The Bavarian State Brewery Weihenstephan, this dark wheat beer is impressive with its creamy white foam. A fruity-fresh sweetness and hints of mature bananas harmonize with delicious flavors of roasted malt, sparkling and full-bodied with a light caramel taste on the first sip. An excellent accompaniment to everything from hearty meals to chocolate and nut desserts. 99 rating and the #1 ranked Dunkelweisse in the world on Beer Advocate.

Great Lakes Oktoberfest $13

This smooth, traditional Marzen-Style Lager has a bready, biscuity, and complex malt body with hints of toffee and caramel, and a clean, subtle noble hop bitterness. This 'uber' smooth Oktoberfest can be contributed to their decoction brewing. An added extra touch to make this 98 rated beer one of the best Oktoberfest brews in the world. Oktoberfest beer, in general, is one of the best brews to pair with many different foods. Prost!

Warsteiner Pilsner $13

Warsteiner Premium Beer is an award-winning German pilsner brewed in the heart of Germany using premium hops, barley malt, and pure, soft water. Crisp, clean, and perfectly balanced, it delivers subtle malt flavor with a refreshing hop finish. At 4.8% ABV, Warsteiner is the authentic taste of German brewing tradition in every sip.
