M'tucci's

SHRUB COCKTAILS

Shrubs are a sharp, tangy infusion of fruit, vinegar, and sugar. The American version of the shrub dates back to 17th Century England where vinegar was used as an alternative to citrus juices to preserve berries and other fruits. At M'tucci's, we have revived these traditional methods and experimented with many different combinations of fresh fruit, local herbs, and various vinegars. Be sure to try them all!

AMARI

Amaro is the Italian word for "Bitter". Amari are herbed liquors that are commonly consumed as a digestif to help aid digestion. Amari have very unique and complex flavor profiles. From intense spice, herb and bitter to soft, sweet and floral notes, Amari are an expression of passion from the lands they are produced.
