M'tucci's

SHRUB COCKTAILS

Shrubs are a sharp, tangy infusion of fruit, vinegar, and sugar. The American version of the shrub dates back to 17th century

England where vinegar was used as an alternative to citrus juices to preserve berries and other fruits. At M'tucci's, we have revived these traditional methods and experimented with many different combinations of fresh fruit, local herbs, and various vinegars. Be sure to try them all!

APERTIVOS

*An Italian tradition of enjoying a pre-meal drink,
meant to open the palate and stimulate your appetite.
Aperitivos are classically low alcohol beverages made from aromatized wines and bitter liqueurs*

APERTIVO CAPPELLETTI 8

est. 1906, Northern Italy

A wine based aperitif. Notes of oranges, pink grapefruit, citrus peels and pith, and clove. Clean and refreshingly bitter finish

COCCHI AMERICANO 7

est. 1891, Piedmont, Italy

‘Americano’ referring to the style of apertivio that is gentian root based. Balanced notes of citrus, quinine, gentian, and baking spices

LILLET BLANC 7

est. 1872, Bordeaux, France

Made from Bordeaux wine grapes and fruit liqueurs.
Slightly sweet, balanced quinine bitterness, honey,
candied orange, citrus zest, dandelion

SUZE 10

est. 1889, Paris, France

Made from gentian plants harvested in the French Alps
and Pyrenees mountains. Soft bitterness, subtle sweetness, pine, eucalyptus, honey, dried orange zest

NONINO L'APERITIVO 11

est. 1940, Friuli, Italy

Made with 16 botanicals local to Northern Italy.
Slightly bitter with fresh citrus notes and a floral soft body. Balanced notes of chamomile, lemon peel, and elderflower

PILLA SELECT 9

est. 1920, Venice, Italy

Aromas of ripe orchard fruit, vanilla, and warm spice.
Smooth and lightly sweet, with notes of caramel, dried fruit, oak, and baking spice, with a warm finish.

SARTI ROSA 8

est. 1885, Bologna, Italy

Pleasant sweetness with citrus notes of blood orange combined with the tropical freshness of mango and passion fruit.

RAMAZZOTTI ROSATO 9

est. 1815, Milan, Italy

Bright and floral with notes of hibiscus, rose and fresh citrus. Lightly sweet with a delicate herbal bitterness, and a crisp refreshing finish.

AMARI

Amaro is an Italian word meaning 'bitter'. Amari are herbed liqueurs that are commonly consumed after dinner to aid with digestion. Amari are enjoyed throughout Italy and around the world, and have very complex flavor profiles. From intense spice, herbaceous and bitter, to sweet and floral notes, they taste of the passion from the lands they are produced.

AMARO NONINO RISERVA 24

est. 1992, Friuli, Italy

Soft citrus notes with a beginning autumn brushwood & moss fragrances, scents of raisins and passito. Balsamic that balance the bitter notes of rhubarb, flamed orange and caramelized vanilla.

AMARO NONINO QUINTESSENTIA 12

est. 1992, Friuli, Italy

Light sweetness with a mild palate. Notes of gentian root, licorice, saffron, orange peels.

AMARO SFUMATO 9

est. 1906, Trento, Italy

With a base of Chinese Rhubarb, balanced with sweet alpine berries, woody herbs and a unique smokiness.

LAZZARONI AMARO 9

est. 1851, Saranno, Italy

Alpine herbs, roots and berries. Notes of mint, cola, baking spices and bitter roots. Long warming herbaceous satiny finish.

LUXARDO AMARO ABANO 9

est. 1821, Torreglia, Italy

Warm notes of cardamom and cinnamon and bitter orange. Hints of espresso, chocolate and fig. A balanced warm, smooth and slightly herbaceous finish.

AMARO MONTENEGRO 8

est. 1885, Bologna, Italy

Made from a blend of 40 botanicals to create a bittersweet flavor profile. Notes of warm fall spices, dried orange, cherry cola, black tea, and tobacco spice.

ANTICO AMARO NOVEIS 7

est. 1960, Piemonte, Italy

Dominating herbal bitterness, with notes of eucalyptus, mint, dried cherries, light honey, and fresh pine.

RAMAZZOTTI AMARO 9

est. 1815, Milan, Italy

Quinine and gentian bitterness, licorice and turmeric spice, orange peel and berry sweetness.
