- Format for panel and audience:

- Your Host will introduce two panelists at a time and present questions 1-4, 5-8,9-12, 13-16 and so on to two panelists to respond, one at a time and rotate to next two panelists for 9-12 etc.
- Next, The Audience will have opportunity to offer 2 short questions on topic, max. 2 (1 per panelist) to be answered by each panelist, 1 - each. If there are additional questions please send to host at billfreeonline@gmail.com for answer by email or add to next webinar.
- Four questions will be offered at a time, two for each pair of panelist. The panelist can take up to five minutes giving their answer to the two questions or pass if they felt it was adequately answered by the 1st panelist or add something additional to an answer given by the other panelist.

- After both panelists have answer each of the two questions, two questions will be pulled from the chat board if they are on topic of the questions and 1 question will be given to each panelist. One minute only will be allowed for each panelist. 1 question each. This Ends this round and we move to the next two panelists and do the same thing.

We will have a short pause in between each of the panelists questions for resting back in Aware Presence.

1. What does The Course mean when it says. God will take the final (or last) step?
2. Who am I praying to when I say Father?
3. How to Listen to The Holy Spirit or Jesus? – Are these separate entities?
4. Who am I speaking to when I speak to Jesus?

5. What should A Course in Miracles student do for the most benefit of awakening during or after completing The Course?
6. Is A Course in Miracles a non-dual teaching?
7. What is the goal of A Course in Miracles?

8. How would A Course in Miracles student get the most from A Course in Miracles?

9. Is a Non-dual understanding necessary for salvation according to the course?

10. Will A Course in Miracles bring it's practitioner/student to the experience of enlightenment?

11. Can I be awake and not enlightened?

12. Is the Non-dual path necessary for full enlightenment?

13. What are the benefits of using both the Non-dual direct path and A Course in Miracles?

14. Is there a downside to following both paths?

A Course in Miracles and Non-duality

15. How do these two paths fit together?

16. Does A Course in Miracles and the Non-Dual Direct Path fit together?

Much of the Course language is written in Christian dualistic pronoun terms: Is this limiting? Not an issue? Comments

- God, Him, You, We, I, Me, Jesus, The Holy Spirit, Spirit, Your Brother, Mighty Companions, and other metaphors/symbols such as Salvation and Forgiveness and how these Christian terms can better serve you when understood through a different filter of reference.

Why is this important?

Questions - write ins Grp. A & B

- What does it mean to "Forget this Course" in lesson 189? Forget it for how long? George
- As a student of non duality, I often wonder if prayer is actually necessary? I mean who am I praying to? Robin
- I would appreciate clarification of terms and the distinction/relationship between ego, Holy Spirit and God. Elsa
- How can I go beyond using the Course's terminology without losing the love that is so deeply connected to it? When I read or listen to Rupert Spira for instance, there is emptiness instead of the love of the Course... Is love emptiness? Uta
- The work atonement. In my head I hear At One-ment. I hear others pronounce it as A Tonement. Could some one please speak to this? What is atonement and is it the same as salvation? Issy

Questions - write ins - Grp. C

- Can you guys tell about being fully awake and not fully enlightened yet please ?!!
- And about non duality not speaking about God or Help while I feel that you cannot awaken without the Help from higher parts of Us (the One Thing we all are and what everything IS).
- And can you guys tell your experience with being fully awake (not fully enlightened yet)
- And the body being ill is it (always) true that the body heals when you wake up because the "I" is not a body and is also not ill?!! Thanks so much, I am curious about youre answers! Love you! Thank you! Jelske
- I have been a student of ACIM and a follower of Gangaji and her teachings (Papaji/Ramana) for over 25 years. Is it possible to follow both and transcend the dialogue to Pure Awareness? As I wrote this question the answer became apparent...I would love to hear your thoughts and experiences Bill on this webinar. I'm so grateful this conversation is taking place. Nameste
