About CCMP

Objective of CCMP:

To empower people to transform their situation using their own God-given resources in a sustainable and holistic way.

To change 'holistically' means to change in all areas of your life. We use the Light Wheel and its nine aspects of wellbeing to help explain this.

Context

These contextual factors will affect the impact of our work and must be taken into consideration when assessing change.

Pillars of CCMP: Principles for success

The pillars are a set of indicators that are used during the process. The more these indicators are apparent, the greater the success.

- Holistic human transformation:
 - Total change of the person – physical and spiritual
 - Lasting personal transformation – not just superficial change
 - Change in perspective – who we are in God’s perspective and in relationship with each other
- Relationships:
 - Restoring our relationship with God
 - Restoring our relationship with ourselves
 - Restoring our relationship with each other
 - Restoring our relationship with creation
- Sustainability:
 - Long-term change, people-owned, people-driven development, people learning from successes and failures
- Empowerment of people:
 - People discovering for themselves (self-discovery)
 - People taking charge of their situation
 - People having a voice and expressing themselves freely
 - People ultimately determining their destiny, people being released to use their own resources
- Process rather than product:
 - A focus on people rather than things
 - Walking with the people at their pace rather than driving or dragging them (though this may take longer)
 - A step-by-step ‘walk’ into discovery
 - Change from within comes first and external things change as a result
- Reaching god-given potential
 - People discovering what the Bible says they can become and what they can do in God’s power
 - People overcoming fear and other barriers, taking action to transform their situation in faith
 - People celebrating achievement by glorifying God
- Resources:
 - Given by God; therefore, appreciate him and worship him because of this
 - Resources are available, if we look hard enough
 - People using resources properly, increasing their well-being and reducing poverty

- Local church being transformed and transforming its immediate community
 - Local church being God's instrument for transformation of the self and whole-life transformation for everyone
 - Local church stirring its immediate community to change for the better
 - Each believer playing a key role in personal and community change
- Changed change agents:
 - Training quality facilitators passionate for whole-life transformation
 - Facilitators who are themselves changed and passionate to change others
 - Facilitators who multiply themselves by training others

The five stages of CCMP

Church Awakening

Involves motivating the church to understand its role and relationship with the immediate community, starting with Bible study in small groups. This understanding stirs the church to begin engaging its immediate community, stirring the community to take action to deal with its poverty, and influencing the life of the community, thus truly becoming 'salt and light' in the community.

Church and Community Description

Gets the church and community to 'read' into their reality and desire to transform it. Through self-discovery the church and community explore the entire scope of their lives – physical, spiritual, economic, social – and begin to determine strategies to transform it.

Information-Gathering

Provides the church and community with detailed information about the major aspects of their life. Information is power – the information that the church and community gather exposes both the issues that they face and the opportunities open to them to address those issues.

Information Analysis

'Opens the eyes' of the church and the community to gain a true and full picture of the situation at a deep level. This gets them sufficiently agitated to 'take action now', from an informed position.

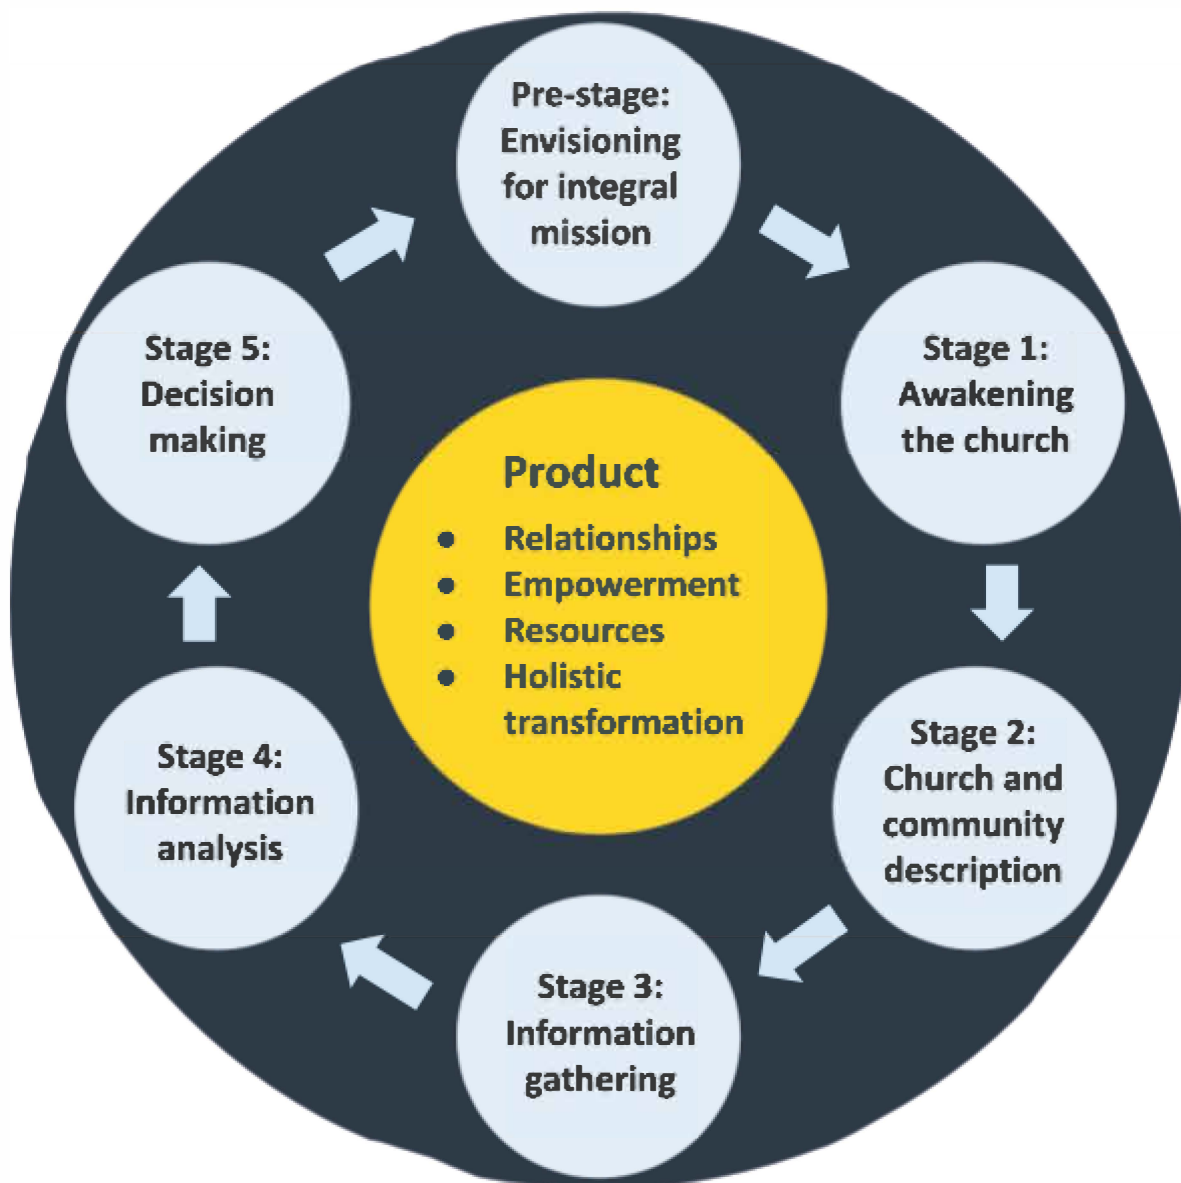

Decision Making

Gets the church and community to reach decisions that completely turn their situation around – envisioning a better future, determining the best options for change, designing the most appropriate actions, and actually taking definite actions to go forward.

The non-negotiables of CCMP

1. Church is “awakened” and understands her mandate for holistic ministry
2. Church commits to her ministry and begins to outwork integral mission
3. Church goes out into the community and builds relationships
4. Church and community “walk” together to identify needs and resources available and improve their situation holistically

Process

Stage 1 – Church awakening

Objective:

The church understands its biblical mandate for holistic ministry and begins to apply it, and thus truly becomes 'salt and light' in the community.

Envisioning the church for integral mission

Proverbs 29:18

“Where there is no vision, the people perish”

- What does this proverb mean?
- Why is it important?

Answer:

The six envisioning questions

1. What do we desire that our church (that ministers as Jesus ministered) should be?
2. What do we desire that our community (that receives the ministry of our church) should be?
3. What characteristics does our church demonstrate today?
4. What characteristics does our community demonstrate today?
5. What gaps appear between the desired church and community vs the current church and community? Why the gaps?
6. What could the church do to address these gaps?

Answer:

Introducing integral mission

Luke 4:18-19

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favour.”

- What did Jesus do?
- What does this mean?
- How do we do this today?

Answer:

John 10:10

“The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full”

- What did Jesus do?
- How can we be like Jesus and do this today?

Answer:

John 14:12

“Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.”

- Who is responsible today for doing what Jesus did?
