

Vermont Actors' Repertory Theatre Presents:

Let's Talk! A community discussion promoting mental health awareness, facilitated by professionals, and sparked by the short works of Vermont Playwrights!

Directed by: Kristen Hixon

Benefit performances for Mental Health Awareness Month. Proceeds going to the local chapters of the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention and the National Alliance on Mental Illness.

Saturday, May 7th, 2022

Two Performances

2:00 & 7:00 PM

Unitarian Universalist Church
117 West St. Rutland,
VT,

Tickets: $10

Please pay cash or check at the door

Or by going to EVNNT:
<https://tickets.evnt.com/organizations/vermont-actors-repertory-theatre>

Vermont Playwrights include:

GLACIER by Lesley Becker, Eddie at Clearwater by Jeanne Beckwith, Cheat A little by Sandy Celauro, and Executive Dysfunction by Dvora Zipkin.

CONTENT ADVISORY Play subject matter includes: Eating disorders and body image, sexual assault, mental illness, addiction, workplace violence, self-harm, and Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. Patrons will have the option to remain after the performance for a talk back led by a Panel of Mental Health Professionals.

Brought to you by:

