

MEDIA ALERT

WEDNESDAY 12 DECEMBER 2018

Canberra's MLA's training for 'Tripartisan' triathlon in support of Canberra community event

In what is believed to be a first, Labor, Liberal and Greens Members of the ACT Legislative Assembly will join forces in the new year to compete in the 2019 Proximity Canberra Triathlon Festival – a 'Tripartisan' triathlon of sorts.

Bec Cody (Labor), Mark Parton (Liberal) and Shane Rattenbury (Greens), will be spending their holidays in training in preparation for the physical challenges that the triathlon entails. All three will be taking part in Canberra's achievable triathlon in the Corporate and Community category. And they encourage local businesses, the Canberra community and other ACT-based politicians to enter.

The Proximity Canberra Triathlon Festival 2019 is being held on Saturday 9th February beginning at Rond Terrace in Canberra. For first timers or novice triathletes, the Corporate and Community category offered at the event is made up of a 200m swim, a 10km bike and a 2km run or walk.

First release entries offering discounted fees, a race kit and a Proximity towel are available now and close on Friday 14 December. Anyone can sign up to compete right through until 6 February 2019, but the earlier you sign up the lower the fees and more you receive by way of the race kit.

For more information and to register, visit <https://proximitytriathlon.com.au/>

PHOTO OPPORTUNITY TODAY:

Bec Cody (Labor), Mark Parton (Liberal) and Shane Rattenbury (Greens) will be geared up with their bikes and tri-suits ahead of training over the holidays. All three are available for photos, interviews and may even have a little trial race.

When: Wednesday 12th December 2018

Time: 11:20am sharp.

Where: The fountains in Civic Square off London Circuit, in front of the Legislative Assembly.

For more information, images or to arrange an interview, please contact:
Lauren Griffiths, Threesides Marketing – 0417 409 264 or lauren.griffiths@threesides.com.au