

Inspirations & CELEBRATIONS

August 28, 2018

Whether you're in the mood to island-hop or you just need to relax poolside while overlooking the majestic Pacific Ocean, to inspire your next vacation, here are some last-minute luxury Labor Day getaways that will definitely help you celebrate the last few weeks of Summer. From gorgeous California resorts to incredible hotels in tropical destinations (like Mexico and the Bahamas), these luxury Labor Day getaways offer everything from activity-oriented trips to rejuvenating leisure vacations.

That's not all... because we love to travel as much as you do, Inspirations & Celebrations is excited to partner with KindTraveler to bring you the "Escape To The Caribbean" Vacation Giveaway.

Enter the giveaway today for a chance to win a $4000 vacation prize package, including a 3-night getaway to Jamaica, a glass-bottom boat tour for 2, and other incredible prizes. This giveaway is open to USA Residents (age 18+); giveaway ends October 2, 2018. For details and to enter, visit the giveaway page.

Newstead Belmont Hills Golf Resort & Spa in Bermuda offers a range of accommodations and features a wide array of dining choices in settings that range from elegant to casual; two tennis courts, an infinity pool, and 18-hole golf course. For beach lovers, a 5-minute complimentary shuttle whisks guests to a choice of two spectacular beaches, complete with chairs, umbrellas, and towels. As Bermuda offers a multitude of recreational activities, the resort's concierge can arrange and customize a range of experiences with their local partners throughout the island. These can include anything from sunset sails and bike and kayak tours to Bermuda shipwreck snorkel excursions, and for the more adventurous – cliff diving.