

Trebah 'Street' Kitchen

Welcome back to 'Trebah Kitchen' with a street food, festival style twist designed especially to keep us all safe this summer! To enable us to implement social distancing in our kitchen we have had to review and adjust our offer.

We still have the same ethos and commitment to quality; the only difference is our food is now available in a much more flexible format that suits the current situation and offers you a widely flexible dining experience. We really are looking forward to making new summer foodie memories with you in our sub-tropical paradise.
