TURNBERRY

Pheasant Hunting

SCOTLAND

Bird Hunting Experiences

Southern Scotland is an exceptional destination for country sports, especially pheasant and partridge shooting. Many high quality private estates are available, all providing excellent sport amidst dramatic landscapes.

Trump Turnberry is delighted to offer exclusive hunting packages for groups of between two and nine hunters. Located in Ayrshire, on the west coast of Scotland, our hunting experience includes high quality driven birds, walked up mixed game shooting and famous Galloway Red Stags on superb private estates.

Over the years, Turnberry has a history of welcoming hunting parties and a variety of country sports groups to the Resort and we look forward to making your trip truly memorable.

All trips are planned and fully escorted by the Trump Turnberry Shooting Concierge Team and tailor-made to each groups requirements.

Driven Bird Hunting Packages

Our exclusive experiences include three or four days of high quality driven bird hunting on privately owned estates in southern Scotland with accommodation at Trump Turnberry.

A typical itinerary comprises of five days: one day of simulated game shooting, three days of quality driven bird hunting, a tour of southern Scotland's dramatic scenery, memorable dining experiences and six nights of luxury accommodation. Feast at a traditional Burn's Supper, sample Scotland's finest whiskies and enjoy the ultimate Chef's Table dining experience prepared by the award-winning culinary team.

Each day's hunting will have a bag expectancy of 200 to 400 high quality driven pheasants and partridges. Eight / nine hunters can be accommodated, and additional non-hunters / guests are most welcome. See suggested itinerary on the next page or contact us to discuss your own tailor-made, bespoke itinerary to suite your requirements.

Luxury Accommodation

Trump Turnberry enjoys a spectacular coastal setting with breath taking views of Isle of Arran, Ailsa Craig and the Irish Sea. Surrounded by Scotland's most beautiful scenery, every visit is unforgettable.

Impeccably designed and well-appointed with your comfort in mind, our diverse choice of guest rooms, suites, villas and self-catering two bedroom cottages showcase the legendary beauty of the country.

Along Ayrshire's rugged coastline and rolling emerald hills, our hotel offers 192 guest rooms, including 4 ocean view suites names after the four Open Championship winners and the iconic two-bedroom suite at The Turnberry Lighthouse that rises above the ruins of King Robert the Bruce's Castle.

Guests enjoy full access to the spa facilities, 24 hour room service, and complimentary wireless Internet access.

Dining

Home to a selection of exceptional restaurants, Turnberry offers you incredible menus complemented by impeccable views of the Scottish coast and outstanding, authentic Scottish hospitality.

Signature restaurant, 1906, features a savoury menu paired with sweeping views all the way to the Isle of Arran. Located at the heart of our hotel, The Grand Tea Lounge & Bar serves a light lunch menu tea then later transforms into the hotel's main bar area at night. Featuring over 250 whiskies, it is the perfect place to relax and reflect by both day and dusk. Named after the famous 1977 Open battle between Tom Watson and Jack Nicklaus, The Duel in the Sun, located in our clubhouse, features a steak and lobster concept, all cooked to perfection in our Jospier grill. Our halfway house, The King of Scots, provides a lively, intimate setting situated within Turnberry's iconic lighthouse.

Take traditional fine dining in Scotland a step further with the Chef's Table. Situated in the main kitchen, this indulgent private dining experience allows you to savour cuisine as you watch the theatrics of our chefs from the best seat in the house.
