ENTERTAINING LOCALLY

There are few things more interesting than a small Irish village, generations of families make it what it is. Derived from Dun Beag, meaning, “the small fort”, Doonbeg is a small village which formed around Doonbeg Castle in the 16th Century, today the remaining walls of the Castle anchor the village on the south east as the Doonbeg River slips quietly by. Modern day Doonbeg is famed for its sandy beaches, 3 wonderful restaurants and 6 pubs each with their own quaint character and style pubs.

Great food, lots of Guinness and heartfelt stories make Doonbeg a place to call home, a place you will call home.
