TURNBERRY GOLF CLUB

————— 2025 Membership —————

Prestigious and steeped in history, some of golf's most storied moments have taken place on the Championship Ailsa course, home of four exceptional Open Championships. There is no finer links course to play, with Top 100 Courses raking the Ailsa #2 in Scotland in 2023 and Leadingcourses.com ranking Trump Turnberry as the 4th Best Golf Resorts in Europe, 2023.

THE AILSA

Since acquiring the resort in 2014, The Trump Organisation and famed golf course architect Martin Ebert, of Mackenzie & Ebert, completed a meticulous historic study and modern-day review of the Ailsa course and have since created a true masterpiece.

A selection of inspiring changes has been implemented including the creation of five dramatic and stunning new holes plus a range of alterations covering virtually every corner of the course. Turnberry's iconic lighthouse, which has acted as a timeless beacon for golfers from across the world, has also re-emerged as the world's most impressive Halfway House. Situated on the cusp of the rocky coastline, stop and enjoy a refreshment while marvelling not only at the new challenges laid out by this magnificent course but the panoramic beauty of the surrounding scenery.

KING ROBERT THE BRUCE

In 2017, the magnificent King Robert the Bruce was opened. The course is named after the King of Scotland, Robert the Bruce, a historical warrior who led Scotland to claim its right as an independent country in the Battle of Bannockburn in June 1314. He was born in July 1274 in Turnberry Castle. The iconic Turnberry Lighthouse now stands amongst the ruins of this medieval castle.

Martin Ebert, responsible for the rebirth of the Ailsa, has created this world-class golf experience that thrills golfers of all abilities. Distinctive bunkering, visually attractive wetland areas and swathes of gorse add to the exciting challenges of this great links course.
