

Right Here, Right Now

VERSE 1

With all that is within my soul
I bless your name
Bless your name
For no one else is worthy Lord
Of all our praise
Of all our praise

PRECHORUS 1

Oh we invite you here
We ask that you would come
Your kingdom be revealed
As knees fall to the ground
Change the atmosphere
With a glimpse of what's to come
Oh heaven fall on us
Let your kingdom come

CHORUS

VERSE 2

We thank you Lord, for all you've done
We trust in you
Always trust in you
We're believing there is more to come
You're breaking through
You're breaking through

PRECHORUS 2

Oh chains be broken now
And hands be lifted high
By the power of your name
Let the hope of heaven rise
Oh God of miracles
Oh Father of the light
Won't you call our hearts to faith
Open up our eyes

BRIDGE

Holy Spirit come fall
Holy Spirit come move
Holy Spirit come do
What only you can do
